1. About the Organization

The Denver Urban Renewal Authority (DURA) was created by ordinance of the City and County of Denver (City) in 1958 under Colorado Urban Renewal Law which was enacted by the State Legislature in that same year. DURA is a redevelopment agency, performing the traditional duties of an urban renewal authority – eliminating blight where it currently exists and helping foster the sound growth and development of the City. DURA also has responsibility for implementing several City housing rehabilitation programs designed to improve the quality of existing single-family homes owned by low to moderate income residents.

In its redevelopment capacity, DURA uses an important financing tool called tax increment financing (TIF) to fill the gap between the cost of a redevelopment project and the level of private financing the project can support in situations where blight exists. State law enables urban renewal authorities to use incremental property and sales taxes generated by a redevelopment project to provide project financing. Redevelopment activities which benefit from tax increment are either financed through the issuance of tax increment revenue bonds, notes or with developer reimbursement obligations.

DURA's Housing Department administers six housing rehabilitation programs, providing low interest loans and grants to low and moderate-income Denver residents for making needed repairs to their owner-occupied homes. DURA assists low to moderate-income residents with low-interest loans for emergency repairs such as hot water heater replacement, or for more thorough rehabilitation of a single-family home, installing a new roof and replacing sewer lines – repairs that ensure the home is safe and comfortable.

DURA is governed by a 13-member Board of Commissioners that directs policy. The Executive Director is appointed by the Board and directs the 16 person staff and its operations.

2. Background

In 2000, the Board of Commissioners adopted the Denver Urban Renewal Authority Business Plan which has served as the organization’s Strategic Plan. The Business Plan was developed in coordination with the City’s adoption of its Comprehensive Plan – Plan 2000. Through periodic updating and consistent evaluation of potential DURA projects and programs against the criteria establish in Plan 2000 and the Business Plan, DURA has made a measurable impact across the City and County of Denver.

In April 2019, Comprehensive Plan 2040 and Blueprint Denver were adopted by the Denver City Council. These plans are intended to work together to guide development and redevelopment activity through 2040 while addressing key issues such as growth, mobility, housing, neighborhood character, and equity. In February 2018, Council adopted Housing an Inclusive Denver, the City’s five-year housing policy, strategy and investment plan. DURA’s activities, in coordination with other City departments, not-for-profit and community organizations and developers, help support the goals, objectives and strategies of these City Plans.

With the needed consistency between the City’s Comprehensive Plan and the DURA Strategic Plan, it is now necessary for DURA to create a Strategic Plan to not only meet the statutory requirement that urban redevelopment plans and projects be in conformance with City plans, but also to allow DURA to build upon and strengthen the positive impact it has realized in the past 20 years into the future.

While Comprehensive Plan 2040 works to craft a long-range vision for Denver, it’s implementation will be significantly influenced by political, community and economic pressures. In recognition of these effects, DURA anticipates adopting a 20-year Strategic Plan that is further managed, modified and implemented through periodic (i.e. 3- to 5-year) Business Plans.

3. Purpose and Goals of Strategic Planning

The DURA Board is seeking a professionally-qualified consultant/firm/team to work with its members to create a strategic plan to address its strategic issues through a comprehensive, data-driven and partner-engaged planning process. The Strategic Plan will be used to set priorities; focus energy and resources for the staff, leadership, board and other partners; strengthen operations and decision-making; and ensure other stakeholders are working toward common goals. It will be a tool to establish agreement around DURA’s intended outcomes and results of TIF supported projects and housing program investments.

Key goals of the Strategic Planning effort include:

- Develop overarching strategy for maximized community impact that looks at all potential things DURA could do and narrowing it down to the things we are best positioned to achieve.
- Define how external partners and stakeholders should view DURA.
- Identify factors of organizational success into the future
- Create prioritized list of goals and strategies
- Potentially update mission, vision and values.
- Develop implementation recommendations, including opportunities to re-set strategies as necessary

4. Scope of Services

DURA is aware that there are a variety of perspectives, models, and approaches available to develop a strategic planning document; therefore, the successful firm should be able to discern which model or models(s) will best enable DURA to complete its strategic planning goals. With an expected completion of the Strategic Plan within 12 months from commencement, the proposed model should include the expected participation of DURA Board and Staff, and the timeline necessary to complete the engagement. The DURA Board and/or Strategic Planning & Legislative Committee envision holding one or more one-to two-day work sessions dedicated to this effort. We seek input from the consultant to help schedule, structure and facilitate these work sessions to maximize impact.

While DURA seeks the consultant’s recommendations regarding the best process to develop an actionable strategic plan, DURA currently anticipates the scope of services will include, but not be limited to, the following four components:

- Stakeholder Engagement
- Best Practice Research
- Exploration and Validation of Creative Solutions
- Draft 20-year Strategic Plan with actionable 3- to 5- year Business Plan

Please note that this RFP expects the consultant to facilitate all components of the Scope of Services.

Stakeholder Engagement

DURA Board of Commissioners

The Strategic Plan will ultimately be adopted by the DURA Board of Commissioners and will serve as their policy-driven resource to determine where DURA is now, where we would like to be in the future, and how we intend to get there. Accordingly, the process will be undertaken with active participation of the full DURA Board, the Board’s Strategic Planning & Legislative Committee, and Senior Staff.

The consultant should advise on how to structure and facilitate meetings with the Board to maximize their role in the process.

DURA Partners

Comprehensive Plan 2040, Blueprint Denver and Housing an Inclusive Denver all reflect the opportunities and challenges facing Denver as it continues to grow and the impacts this growth has on the people of Denver, particularly those most directly impacted by development and redevelopment. The activities of DURA are influenced by government leaders, the development community, neighborhood organizations, and others. Through the lens of the current City plans, the consultant will be responsible for conducting partner outreach to complete a “needs assessment”. This assessment would include two components:

Program Inventory and Analysis – Inventory existing program offerings and partnerships to serve as a baseline to identify service gaps and opportunities for different delivery options, partnerships and collaborations. The result of this effort would be the ability to answer three questions:

1. What is DURA doing well?
2. Where could current offerings be improved?
3. Are there things currently being done by DURA that are better delivered by others?

Identification of Opportunities – Through partner outreach, compile list of potential new opportunities for DURA to further implement City plans.
Best Practice Research

This component would consist of a review of peer cities nationally and other front range communities that have used urban renewal and tax increment financing to address the six vision elements of Comprehensive Plan 2040:

- Equitable, affordable and inclusive
- Strong and authentic neighborhoods
- Connected, safe and accessible places
- Economically diverse and vibrant
- Environmentally resilient
- Healthy and active

While we recognize peer cities will not exactly match the issues facing DURA and Denver, this review should focus on cities with similar economic pressures, housing prices, and equitable development (i.e. gentrification) challenges. The review should also incorporate the statutory similarities or limiting differences between C.R.S. 31-25-101, et seq., and the peer city. Please identify potential comparable cities for review in the proposal.

Exploration and Validation of Creative Solutions

The Stakeholder Engagement and Best Practice Research components will likely result in the identification of new opportunities that will influence the development of organizational strategies and vision. Any new opportunities identified will need to be thoroughly explored and validated to determine what, if any, organizational changes would be required to effect implementation. In addition, this component will also require the validation of DURA’s mission, vision and strategy to ensure its success in the current landscape of development and economy in Denver. The consultant will be expected to navigate this component with the Board and Staff to develop a successful Strategic Plan.

Prepare 20-year Strategic Plan with actionable 3- to 5-year Business Plan

The final component of the process entails the identification of key strategic goals and the development of an actionable Strategic Plan that will serve as the overall blueprint for DURA’s work. This Strategic Plan should include:

- An Executive Summary
- A comprehensive, detailed plan that identifies:
  - Shared vision and mission
  - Goals
  - Objectives
  - Strategies
  - Tactics
  - Responsible partners and their roles
  - Measures
  - Outcomes
- Infrastructure (e.g., organization structuring, staffing and related key budget considerations, etc.) needed to support the Strategic Plan’s implementation
- Methods of measuring successful implementation of the Strategic Plan
  - Expectations of Board
• Expectations of Staff
  • This plan should also include:
    o Resource development strategies
    o Initial communications strategies (What are the key messages? Who are the targets for those messages? How are the messages delivered? Who delivers the messages?)

The 3- to 5-Year Business Plan is expected to define how the Board and staff will work to implement the goals and strategies identified in the Strategic Plan in a more near-term, measurable way. The Business Plan should identify and prioritize what DURA must achieve to address the priority issues identified in the Strategic Plan.

It is expected that all components will be accomplished through a combination of activities, including, but not limited to:
  • Background research by consultant on DURA history and current leadership team
  • Review of previously completed interviews, surveys and/or any other information that will be useful in receiving partner and community input
  • Partner engagement as described above
  • Facilitated group meetings with board and staff to create consensus regarding a strategic vision and plan
  • Review of available data and partner strategic plans as well as any relevant research and best practices relating to the work DURA accomplishes

J. The contents of a successful proposal may become a contractual obligation if selected for award. Failure of the proposer to accept this obligation may result in cancellation of the award. No plea of error or mistake shall be available to successful proposer as a basis for release of proposed services at stated price/cost.

K. DURA reserves the right to request clarification or, explanation for, or verify any aspect of a response to this RFP, and to require the submission of any price, technical, or other revision to the RFP that results from negotiations conducted.
